RULE 1006-1

PAYMENT OF FILING FEE IN INSTALLMENTS

(a) Fees Owed from Previous Case. If a debtor files an application to pay case filing fees in installments and the debtor owes an unpaid fee from a previous case filed within five calendar years, the Court will deny the application and allow the debtor fourteen days from the petition date to pay the entire filing fee. If the entire filing fee is not paid, the Court may dismiss the case without a hearing. An order denying the debtor's application will be entered on the CM/ECF docket report of the case.

(b) Minimum Installment Payments. In all cases where subdivision (a) does not apply, a debtor's application to pay the case filing fee in installments may be approved, without a hearing, only if it complies with the following requirements:

- (1) a minimum payment of twenty-five percent of the total case filing fee shall be paid within 30 days of the petition date;
- (2) installments shall be paid not less often than monthly;
- (3) the number of installments shall not exceed four; and
- (4) no installment shall be less than twenty-five percent of the total case filing fee unless a lesser amount will pay the filing fee in full.

(c) Case Filing Fees Paid Through a Chapter 13 Trustee.

(1) For chapter 13 cases filed on or after December 1, 2015, a debtor may pay the chapter 13 case filing fee through the trustee assigned to the case if each of the following requirements is met:

- (A) the debtor files an application to pay the case filing fee in installments that complies with subparagraph (b) of this Local Rule and is granted by the Court;
- (B) the debtor signs and files with the application to pay the filing fee in installments Local Form 1006-1(c), acknowledging and agreeing to the trustee's collection of the percentage fee on any filing fee installments made through the chapter 13 trustee's office;

(C) the debtor's chapter 13 plan states in Section 4.2 that the trustee will disburse the chapter 13 case filing fee through the plan; and

(D) the debtor's chapter 13 plan provides for monthly plan payments in amounts sufficient to enable the chapter 13 trustee to timely pay all installments of the case filing fee to the Clerk of Court, as well as the trustee's percentage fee for said payments.

(2) If the debtor is represented by an attorney, Local Form 1006-1(c) must be signed both by the debtor and by the debtor's attorney. If the chapter 13 case is a joint case, both debtors must sign Local Form 1006-1(c).

(3) If a debtor signs Local Form 1006-1(c) and files the form in the debtor's chapter 13 case, the standing chapter 13 trustee assigned to the case is authorized to remit filing fee installment payments to the Clerk of Court, both before and after confirmation, from the payments made by the debtor to the trustee. In such cases, the trustee shall remit payment of each filing fee installment to the Clerk of Court electronically in the month sufficient funds become available to pay the installment, or in the following month. The trustee is authorized to pay the trustee's percentage fee at the time of each remittance of a chapter 13 case filing fee installment to the Clerk of Court, whether the remittance is made pre-confirmation or post-confirmation.

(Eff. 7/ 1/ 2010) Local Rule 1071-1 has been abrogated by 28 U.S.C. § 81 (2024) (Eff. 10/1/2025)

RULE 1073-1 VENUE OF CASES

(a) Venue Within the District. The county in which the domicile, residence, principal place of business, or principal assets of the person or entity that is the subject of the case have been located for the 180 days immediately preceding the commencement of the bankruptcy case, or for a longer portion of such 180 day period than the residence or principal place of business of such person or entity was located in any other division; or in which there is pending a case under title 11 concerning such person's or entity's affiliate, general partner, or partnership shall be used to determine venue of cases within the district according to the geographic divisions within the district as defined in Rule 1071-1. A division office may accept for filing, on behalf of any other division office, an original petition and accompanying documents under any chapter of the Code if the filer of the petition is a pro se individual or an attorney who is not a CM/ECF registered user and who has obtained a waiver from the clerk's office to file documents in conventional format. Venue of such cases shall be in accordance with Rule 1073-1(a).

(Eff. 7/ 1/ 2010)

RULE 2016-1 COMPENSATION OF PROFESSIONALS

(a) General. All applications made pursuant to Sections 330 and 331 for compensation for professional services rendered, with the exception of applications from Trustees seeking compensation as limited by Section 326, must comply with this Rule. If a professional, whose compensation is subject to approval under Section 330, accepts a retainer from any source for future services in a case in this Court, the professional must obtain Court approval before drawing against the retainer.

(b) Application Cover Sheet. Except for compensation in chapter 13 cases described in subdivision (l) of this Rule, each application must begin with an application cover sheet. This document and all forms referenced in these Rules can be found on the Court's website at <http://www.alnb.uscourts.gov/forms/all-forms>. Each cover sheet must include:

- (1) The name of applicant;
- (2) The date the application for employment was filed;
- (3) The date of the order authorizing employment and the authorized terms and conditions of employment, if any;
- (4) To whom the services were provided;
- (5) The period for which compensation is sought;
- (6) The amount of compensation and expenses sought;
- (7) A designation of whether the application is a final or interim application and, if an interim application, designate whether it is a second, third, etc. application;
- (8) If not the first application filed in the case by the applicant, a disclosure of the dates, periods, compensation, and expenses allowed for each of the prior applications;
- (9) The aggregate amount of compensation and expenses allowed to date; and
- (10) The aggregate amount of compensation and expenses paid to date.

The Bankruptcy Administrator's office must review every application and report to the Court whether the application complies with this Rule.

(c) Narrative Summary. With the exception of interim applications for an amount less than $25,000.00 or final applications for compensation where the cumulative total of compensation sought in the final application and in any interim applications is less than $25,000.00, each application must include a narrative summary that includes the following:

- (1) A summary of compensation requested, which explains the general nature of the work performed;
- (2) A description of the individuals who performed the services for which compensation is sought including the following for each:
 - (A) Name;

(B) Position within the organization such as partner, associate, paralegal, legal assistant, or law clerk;

(C) Hourly rate at which each customarily bills time;

(D) The total hours worked by the individual during the time period addressed by the application;

(E) The qualifications and experience of each individual who performed work for which compensation is requested, especially the extent of all bankruptcy experience or other specialized experience actually used during the course of the individual's employment in the case; and

(F) A statement of prevailing market rates in the relevant professional community for similar services performed by professionals with reasonably comparable skills, experience, and reputation to the individuals who performed the services for which compensation is requested as well as a statement of the cost in the community of comparable services in nonbankruptcy cases. If the rates or costs are challenged, the applicant shall provide admissible evidence at a hearing; and

(3) A discussion of the twelve factors first enunciated in Johnson v. Ga. Highway Express, Inc., 488 F.2d 714, 717-19 (5th Cir. 1974), a civil rights case, and made applicable to compensation determinations in bankruptcy in Am. Benefit Life Ins. Co. v. Baddock (In re First Colonial Corp. of Am.), 544 F.2d 1291, 1298-99 (5th Cir. 1977).

(d) Project Summaries. With the exception of interim applications for an amount less than $25,000.00 or final applications for compensation where the cumulative total of compensation sought in the final application and in any interim applications is less than $25,000.00, each application must include a summary for each project within the case. The form located on the Court's website at <http://www.alnb.uscourts.gov/forms/all-forms> is an acceptable form for project summaries. Each summary should include the following:

- (1) A title for each project;
- (2) The general nature of the project and circumstances involved;
- (3) The amount of the requested compensation attributable to the project;
- (4) The amount of time attributable to the project;
- (5) The objective of the project, such as what the applicant had originally hoped (or hopes if the project is not complete) to accomplish as a result of the effort consumed by the project;
- (6) Any particular problems or difficulties encountered; and
- (7) The disposition (or expected disposition) of the project, including what was actually accomplished as a result of the effort put into the project.

(e) Summary of Expenses. With the exception of interim applications for an amount less than $25,000.00 or final applications for compensation where the cumulative total of compensation sought in the final application and in any interim applications is less than $25,000.00, each application must include a summary of expenses. The form located on the Court's website at <http://www.alnb.uscourts.gov/forms/all-forms> is an acceptable form for summaries of expenses.

A summary should include the following:

- (1) Expense items grouped by category;
- (2) The total charges for each category;
- (3) A brief explanation of the necessity for the expense category; and
- (4) An explanation of the method of calculation of the total for each category.

(f) Actual Chronological Time Entries. Copies of billing records incorporating contemporaneously generated time entries must be attached to the application. All time entries should describe the tasks performed. Each entry should indicate what type of work was done, such as a telephone call, research, conference, document drafting, or attendance at a hearing or a deposition. Each entry should also include the date the work was done, the time spent performing the work, the individual who performed the work, the subject matter of the work, and, if not readily apparent, the benefit to the estate resulting from the work or the relevance of the work to the administration of the estate. For example:

- (1) When describing a telephone conversation, the applicant should name all participants to the conversation and the date and subject matter of the conversation;
- (2) Entries for drafting and reviewing documents should specify the documents involved and the matters to which the documents pertain;
- (3) Entries for appearing in Court and at depositions should indicate the nature of the hearing attended or the name of the individual deposed and the project to which the hearing or deposition is related. If more than one applicant from the same organization participated in the hearing or deposition and that applicant also requests compensation because of such participation, the application should clearly indicate why the participation of both applicants was necessary;
- (4) When describing conferences or meetings, the applicant should name all participants and note the subject matter and purpose of the conference or meeting. If more than one applicant from the same organization participated in the conference or meeting and that applicant also requests compensation because of such participation, the application should clearly indicate why the participation of both applicants was necessary; and
- (5) Time entries for research should note the subject matter of the research and the use of the material.

(g) Actual Expense Items Grouped By Category. All expense items must be itemized with the nature of and the necessity of each expense explained. All items should be grouped by category. Category names should be consistent with the summary category names in subdivision (d) of this Rule. Total amounts for all line item expenses in a particular category should reconcile with the summary category amounts in the expense summary. Each expense itemization should contain the following:

- (1) The date and a description of the expense;
- (2) The specific matter to which the expense relates, excluding de minimis photocopies or de minimis postage;
- (3) The justification for the expense if not readily apparent and an explanation of the expense if it is unusual in type or amount; and
- (4) Copies of all receipts excluding de minimis expenses.

(h) Minimum Time Blocks. When preparing the application, the applicant should consider that Section 330(a) authorizes compensation for services only to the extent the services are actually performed. The use of minimum time blocks to report services may frustrate Section 330(a) and should be avoided. The use of minimum time blocks of .1 hours is acceptable.

(i) Lumping. Applications must separately indicate itemized time for performing each discrete task. Grouping tasks in a single description within one total time allotment is known as lumping and does not comply with Bankruptcy Rule 2016(a). The primary problem with lumping is that it precludes the Court from determining the exact time spent performing a single task and prevents the Court from assessing the reasonableness of the time spent or compensation requested for performing the task. The Court may be unable to segregate compensable services from noncompensable services or be unable to identify services for which the applicant would otherwise be paid if properly described.

(j) Verification. The application must contain a statement that verifies the information contained in the application.

(k) Filing and Service. At the time of filing, the applicant must serve a copy of each application upon the following:

- the Trustee;
- the Bankruptcy Administrator;
- the debtor; and
- any committee appointed in the case.

The applicant must attach a certificate of service to the application.

(l) Compensation for Debtors' Attorneys in Chapter 13 Cases. An attorney in a chapter 13 case is relieved from filing a detailed application for compensation as required by Bankruptcy Rule 2016 if the attorney complies with all of the following conditions and requirements:

- (1) Files a Bankruptcy Rule 2016(b) Disclosure of Compensation reflecting that the attorney will perform all required and necessary services for the debtor including, but not limited to,
 - (A) Counseling with the debtor;
 - (B) Preparing and filing the chapter 13 petition and other documents;
 - (C) Attending the meeting(s) of creditors and confirmation hearing(s) (the attorney of record or an attorney with the law firm of record must appear, to comply with this requirement);
 - (D) Reviewing and filing claims and objecting to claims as necessary;
 - (E) Filing amendments, motions, adversary proceedings, answers in adversary proceedings, or any other required pleadings;
 - (F) Attending all hearings when required;

- (G) Assisting the debtor in petitioning the Court to employ special counsel, to seek approval of settlements or compromises, and to request approval of compensation for special counsel;
 - (H) Vigorously pursuing all objections to claims and adversary proceedings filed on behalf of the debtor to a final order or judgment; and
 - (I) Vigorously defending all adversary proceedings filed against the debtor to a final order or judgment.
- (2) Charges total compensation that does not exceed the amount set forth on the Court's website at <http://www.alnb.uscourts.gov/forms/all-forms>. The compensation charged must be commensurate with the nature and complexity of the case and be based upon the reasonably anticipated amount of time to be expended on the case.
- (3) Provides competent services consistent with and in compliance with the Code and Bankruptcy Rules.
- (4) Includes in the chapter 13 plan a detailed proposal consistent with the Code providing how the Trustee will distribute and pay compensation to the attorney and disclosing whether any portion of the compensation was paid pre-petition.

If a debtor's attorney fails to comply with this subdivision (I), the Court may refrain from awarding compensation, reduce compensation, or require the attorney to file an application for compensation. Attorneys are prohibited from advising clients or the public that this Court requires any minimum or maximum compensation for a chapter 13 case. This Rule does not seek to set any compensation in any chapter 13 case, and it does not and is not intended to set any minimum or maximum compensation in any chapter 13 case filed in this Court.

(m) Seeking Additional Compensation. If a debtor's attorney is awarded compensation pursuant to subdivision (I) of this Rule and thereafter seeks additional compensation, the attorney must file a detailed application for compensation for all compensation in the case as described in this Rule and pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2016(a) and applicable law. The attorney seeking additional compensation must be prepared at the hearing to provide evidence as to the extraordinary tasks required in the case and the reason additional compensation is sought and due.

(n) Electing to File Applications for Compensation in Chapter 13 Cases. A chapter 13 debtor's attorney may elect not to seek compensation under subdivision (l) of this Rule. In that event, the attorney must file a detailed application for all compensation in the case as described in this Rule and pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2016(a) and applicable law.

(o) Review of Applications for Compensation in Chapter 13 Cases. The Trustee must review each request or application for compensation described in subdivisions (l), (m), and (n) of this Rule based on the complexity of the case, the services provided by the debtor's attorney, and relevant factors regarding awards of compensation, including the attorney's skill, experience, and competence. The Trustee must object to the requested compensation if the request appears to be unreasonable, excessive, or inconsistent with the Code or Bankruptcy Rules. The Trustee must advise the Court if the attorney fails to appear in person at any creditor meeting or hearing.

(p) Dismissal or Conversion. In the event no plan is confirmed and the case is dismissed or converted, the Court may award compensation in accordance with the Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and applicable law.

(Eff. 7/ 1/ 2010)

- (E) the claim is for an unsecured debt or obligation that was incurred prior to the filing of a prior bankruptcy case in which the debtor received a discharge, the party

If the deficiency or error is not corrected within 2 business days, the objection may be dismissed, denied, or overruled, without prejudice, without further notice or hearing.
